

Graduate Apprenticeship

Creative and Cultural Industries

Cumbria

cumbria cultural skills partnership

“ developing a ‘creative apprenticeship’ ... would be a key part of meeting the skills demands of the creative and cultural sector ... our aspirant creatives deserve better routes to success ... for a stronger creative and cultural sector benefits us all ”

Will Hutton
Creative Apprenticeships
Sector Skills Council – Creative & Cultural Skills 2005

- Developed by Cumbria Cultural Skills Partnership in collaboration with St Martin’s College
- Developing employability and graduate level skills
- Promoting graduate retention
- Capacity building for creative and cultural businesses and organisations
- Responding to the needs of employers
- Includes Institute of Leadership and Management qualification relevant to employability and professional practice
- Opportunity to undertake a work based project
- Access a work based mentor
- Practice / industry relevant qualification forms part of overall programme (subject to availability)
- 28 week programme with paid allowance for further information, please contact Peter Davies

Development Director
Cumbria Cultural Skills Partnership
PO Box 97 Carnforth LA6 1WS
07821 271 431
peter.ccsp@virgin.net