

Cumbria Cultural Skills Partnership

Calling all Visual Artists!

As part of its GoCreate programme Cumbria Cultural Skills Partnership present:

AIR TIME 09 Carlisle

in association with a-n The Artists Information Company
Supporting artists' practice through information and networking

Are you - a visual artist seeking info on insurance, funding, legal and professional matters?

Do you - want to develop your networks and collaborations?

Do you - want to locate like-minded artists and get timely advice from other artists and experts at this event?

Wednesday 2nd December 3-5pm

University of Cumbria, Skiddaw Building, Fusehill Street, Carlisle

Open to all visual and applied artists these FREE AIR TIME events are designed to provide information and tips from artists, arts organisations and other experts on professional matters such as insurance, negotiation and funding your practice, alongside opportunities to meet and network with like-minded artists. Some places will be reserved especially for final-year art and design graduates.

Don't miss this unique opportunity – Recommended by 94% of artists attending previous events in the series.

Contributors include Steve Perry (Hencilla Canworth Insurance Brokers), artists and experts including representatives from AIR, a-n, DACS (Design and Artists Copyright Society), NAN (Networking Artists Networks), and many more.

Working in partnership with Cumbria Cultural Skills Partnership and DACS the event will be hosted by a-n The Artists Information Company on behalf of AIR*

*AIR – Artists Interaction and Representation is the membership scheme for practising visual and applied artists that is an integral aspect of the Artist subscription provided by a-n The Artists Information Company
